Castolin Eutectic Ireland Ltd. develops, manufactures, and supplies flux-coated welding electrodes, metal powders, and flux-cored wires for maintenance, repair, and OEM applications. This policy expresses our high-level intent and commitments for quality and environmental performance and aligns with our strategic direction.

We are committed to:

Customer focus & quality – Delivering reliable, compliant products on time, at competitive cost, and continually improving our Quality Management System (QMS).

Environmental protection – Preventing pollution and protecting the environment through sustainable resource use, energy efficiency, waste minimization, and emissions control, considering the life-cycle of our products and processes.

Compliance obligations – Meeting applicable legal and regulatory requirements and other obligations we subscribe to.

Continual improvement – Enhancing our Quality and Environmental Management Systems through measurable objectives and performance indicators aligned with our strategic direction.

Integrated approach – When planning and reviewing processes, objectives, and changes, we consider potential risks and opportunities that could affect quality and environmental performance.

Objectives & KPIs – Setting, monitoring, and reviewing measurable objectives for quality and environmental performance, supported by KPIs owned by responsible functions.

Awareness & competence – Ensuring employees understand this policy and their role in achieving objectives, and providing necessary training and resources.

Communication & availability – Maintaining this policy as documented information, communicating it within the organization, and making it available to interested parties.

This policy is appropriate to the nature and scale of our activities and impacts, and is reviewed regularly for continuing suitability and effectiveness.
